Dynamic Quest will hold its first annual "Quest for Hope" run/walk event as a fundraiser for orphaned children in April, the company has announced.

Dynamic Quest is a Greensboro-based technology company specializing in IT services, custom software development and graphic design. The company recently celebrated its 8-year anniversary.

The company also recently moved into a new building on Koger Boulevard and entered a new business niche in data center services. To mark the success, the company said it will work to raise money for Caroline's Promise, a local nonprofit group that facilitates adoptions.

Dynamic Quest is soliciting sponsors and participants for the 5K run and one-mile walk taking place on April 19. Information is available at www.dynamicquest.com/questforhope.
