Introducing “LunchBox Learning” Sessions at Dynamic Quest

Greensboro, NC—March 26, 2009 -- Dynamic Quest, a business solutions provider focusing on- IT Services, Marketing, Data Center, and Software development, is now offering LunchBox Learning and training sessions for business professionals.

The program, scheduled over the lunch hour, is coordinated by Dynamic Quest staff and geared to help business professionals explore the latest technology trends and different aspects of running a successful business. The LunchBox Learning Sessions have been developed by the industry experts who not only know about technology, but have an experience with providing solutions that support best business practices.

Continuing education is crucial to corporations and the need for and interest in training is increasing. As a result, Dynamic Quest is adding training services to their offerings to help their clients keep up with the latest trends in the industry and provide support they need. “Design, implementation and maintenance of a custom software are only components of a comprehensive solution, so we added the end-user training to our services to help our clients with the transition of a new software product or IT system”, said Javier Gomez, CEO of Dynamic Quest.

Held bi-monthly at Dynamic Quest, the LunchBox Learning Sessions will take place at the company’s training room. The new training room, fully equipped for a smooth presentation, is now also available for rentals, training seminars, workshops, lectures or any other business function. To book a training room or to get more information about our Corporate Training, please call 336-370-0555. Check Dynamic Quest website periodically for details on the upcoming LunchBox Learning Sessions, training offerings, and other events. Visit www.dynamicquest.com.
