Greensboro, N.C. – August, 22, 2011 -- Dynamic Quest, a Business Solutions Provider, is now accepting Fundraiser Recipient Applications for the Fall 2011 Quest for Hope event.

Dynamic Quest (www.dynamicquest.com) is committed to Supporting Education with Technology by donating Kindles in support of Guilford County School District's Read 180 literacy programs. Kindles will be donated twice a year to eligible schools to encourage children to read. Literacy is a key focus in Guilford County Schools' strategic plan for on-going improvement. To get more information on the program, go to www.dynamicquest.com/questforhope.

"Technology is a great way to get children excited about reading. Kindles provide interactive technology – instant access to a dictionary and a read aloud function – that allows the child to be actively engaged in improving their reading skills. Dynamic Quest is excited to be able to support our local school systems and their literacy effort." says Kelly Gomez, Marketing Manager at Dynamic Quest.

To apply, simply email questforhope@dynamicquest.com for an application. To qualify, your school must be part of the Guilford County school system and a participant in the Read 180 program. Applications must be submitted by October 7th to be eligible for the Fall event.

Earlier this year, Dynamic Quest donated Kindles to Hairston Middle school and to Northeast Middle School in 2010. In its 4th year, Quest for Hope was established to raise funds, hope, and awareness for those in need. Quest for Hope has sponsored a number of events to benefit local charities such as Caroline's Promise, Lifespan Circle Schools, and Friends for an Earlier Breast Cancer Test®.
